Bringing both elegance and function into the home, UIMAGE is expanding the Treasures collection with the new Treasures dresser.

True to the essence of the Treasures collection, the Treasures dresser is characterized by its curved sides and refined spaciousness. The dresser offers interchangeable side doors that open like wings, providing storage for everything from treasured jewellery to small knick-knacks. The design embodies an unconventional softness, with sides available in either Venetian cane or 100% recycled textile, bringing a sense of understated elegance to the design. Capturing the essence of form and function, the dresser features three spacious, seamlessly integrated drawers, ideal for keeping treasured knitwear, elegant table settings, or important office documents neatly organised.

Whether enhancing a bedroom, elevating a dining room, or bringing order to an office space, the Treasures dresser is a versatile piece that adds a touch of sophistication to any room.
