

ROCKCOCO

GLAMOUR MEETS ROCK 'N ROLL!

Time to add some sassy atmosphere to your in- or outdoor living space! RockCoco, the world's first outdoor chandelier, has now been upgraded to suit both indoor as well as outdoor use.

Rock your ceiling!

Including super handy ceiling kit

Here's the story

Looking for a touch of Louis XV glamour mixed with some dirty rock 'n roll, Dutch designers DeMakersVan created this urbane but durable chandelier with unmistakable Fatboy detailing. Thanks to its warm light and the addition of a classy ceiling kit this icon will look fabulous in any interior. By simply using the steel cable RockCoco transforms into an eye-catcher in the open air. Choose to hang this chandelier anywhere you like; it is not only waterproof and equipped with the newest technology, but also super user-friendly! Also don't bother getting up, but just use the oversized remote control to dim the light and match your every mood. Sit back, relax and enjoy that classic meets contemporary vibe!
